

AGE CONCERNS

All we want is what anyone wants: the right to live, the right to serve the ship, the chance to use our skills and knowledge to ensure humanity's survival. What's so wrong with that?

AGE – POWER & CORRUPTION

- Corrupt departments abuse age laws.

It's a commonly used adage that 'power corrupts, and absolute power corrupts absolutely', but we at Age Concerns hold to a different view. We believe that corruption attracts those who seek power.

Let me tell you story, boys and girls, a story as old as humanity itself, by way of example: a corrupt law exists (for example, a law dictating that Over 65's must be killed). This law was not brought in by corrupt individuals, quite the opposite: this law was introduced by high-minded individuals who wanted nothing but the survival of the human race. But, boys and girls, there were plenty of people who saw how this law could be abused for their own gain, it is then that they swarmed like flies to the rotting meat of that law. They realised by enforcing this law aggressively and zealously they could fill their grubby little hands with power, by making regular people powerless. By making some people (say, for example, the elderly) into second class citizens, they ensured that their position was one of privilege. These leaches turned this law into something akin to a religion, as they made us all believe that following the law was the path to salvation and only they held the key. And anyone who dared to disobey? Anyone who had the gall to suggest there was another way of doing things? They are blasphemers. Heretics. Dangerous. They must be destroyed. And if there is no reason to do so? Fuck it, they'll invent a reason, after all it's for the greater good, right? And so the corrupt enforcers make themselves the greater good and we all stay silent because we're afraid of their power.

Take Piers Red for example: he's a dangerous murderer. He's a homicidal maniac whose first solution to any problem is swift and painful death. And this man? This killer? He's a celebrated member of Recycling. In what sane world is someone who takes obvious pleasure in murder considered a valuable asset to our leaders? We do not live in a sane world, the corruption has driven it mad.

And for as long as corrupt systems exist, there will be corrupt and dangerous individuals abusing them to put themselves at the top, by pushing others to the bottom. Until we begin to take the power back.

Rise up brothers. Rise up.

WAR OF WORDS – A TIRED OLD FIGHT

- NEW TACTIC IN THE WAR AGAINST AGE DISCRIMINATION

For every week that our unjust laws that unfairly victimise Over 65's are not repealed, we will publish a terrible visual pun. These will keep coming until we have justice. There is no escape.
